

BRIGHT MANSIONS.

H.A. Parris

O.A. Parris

1. Our home once was bright and fair, when we met dear pa - pa there; But he's gone to man - sions fair; That the Sav - ior did pre - pare.
 2. Mo - ther, too was in her place, Beams of love shone on her face; As she looked in ten - der care, On her loved ones gath - ered there.

3. Broth - ers, sis - ters then so gay, Now have al - so passed a - way; But I hope to meet them there, Where the Sav - ior did pre - pare.
 4. O could I view that bright place, And my Sav - ior face to face; And those gold - en man - sions there, That the Sav - ior did pre - pare.

"If I go a - way" said He, "I'll come back and call for thee;" Soon the call to me will come, "Leave thy cross and come on home."

"If I go a - way" said He, "I'll come back and call for thee;" Soon the call to me will come, "Leave thy cross and come on home."
