

THE GUIDING STAR. C.M.D.

R.W. Fain

William L. Mullins

1. There is a star, a guid-ing star, Of all the train most bright; Its glo-ries shine a - bove the skies, It dwells en-throned in light.

2. Its rays are seen on In-dia's coast, In dis - tant lands a - far It shines a - bove all hu - man ways, It is our guid-ing star.

3. There is a star, a lone - ly star, That lights the dark-est gloom; It sheds a peace-ful ra-diance o'er The pros-pect of the tomb.

It is the friend of all the good Whose hopes are fixed on high; It cheers us thru the vale of tears; Its com-forts nev - er die.

O may this bless-ed star of hope, The pil-grim's guide be - low, Shine in our souls and bear us up Till Him we ful - ly know.

There is a voice, a cheer-ing voice, That lifts the soul a - bove; Dis - pels the pain - ful, anx-ious doubt And whis-pers, "God is love."
