

I'LL SERVE MY LORD.

O.A.P.

O.A. Parris

1. I'll glad - ly serve my bless - ed Lord, While trav - 'ling thru this land; And
 2. Though so un - wor - thy I may be, I hear His ten - der voice; He

And then re - ceive my
 He speaks un - bound - ed

1. I'll glad - ly serve my bless - ed Lord, While trav - 'ling thru this land; And then re - ceive my great re - ward,
 2. Though so un - wor - thy I may be, I hear His ten - der voice; He speaks un - bound - ed love to me,

And then re - ceive my great re - ward, A He speaks un - bound - ed love to me, That then re - ceive my great re - ward, A house not made with hands, A house not made with hands.

 speaks un - bound - ed love to me, That makes my heart re - joice, That makes my heart re - joice.

great re - ward, A house not made with hands, And then re - ceive my great re - ward, A house not made with hands.
 love to me, That makes my heart re - joice, He speaks un - bound - ed love to me, That makes my heart re - joice.

A house not made with hands, And then re - ceive my great re - ward, A house not made with hands.
 That makes my heart re - joice, He speaks un - bound - ed love to me, That makes my heart re - joice.

house not made with hands, And then re - ceive my great re - ward, A house not made with hands. A house not made with hands.
 makes my heart re - joice, He speaks un - bound - ed love to me, That makes my heart re - joice. That makes my heart re - joice.
