

O COME, COME AWAY.

1. O come, come a - way! the Sab - bath morn is pass - ing; Let's has - ten to the Sab - bath school; O come, come a - way!
 2. My com - rades in - vite to join their hap - py num - ber, And glad - ly I will meet them there; O come, come a - way!

3. While oth - ers may seek for vain and fool - ish plea - sures, The Sab - bath school shall be my choice: O come, come a - way!
 4. 'Tis there I may learn the ways of heav'n - ly wis - dom, To guide my fee - ble steps on high; O come, come a - way!

5. I there hear the voice in heav'n - ly ac - cents speak - ing, "Let lit - tle chil - dren come to me;" O come, come a - way!
 6. With joy I ac - cept the gra - cious in - vi - ta - tion; My heart ex - ults with rap - t'rous hope; O come, come a - way!

The Sab - bath bells are ring - ing clear, Their joy - ous peals sa - lute my ear; I love their voice to hear; O come, come a - way!
 'Tis there we meet to sing and pray, To read God's word on His glad day, With joy let's haste a - way, O come, come a - way!

How dear to hear the plain - tive strain, From youth - ful voi - ces rise a - main, With sweet - est tones a - gain, O come, come a - way!
 The flow - ry paths of peace to tread, Where rays of heav'n - ly bliss are shed, My wan - d'ring steps to lead: O come, come a - way!

"For - bid them not their hearts to give, Let them on Me in youth be - lieve, And I will them re - ceive:" O come, come a - way!
 My death - less spir - it, when I die, Shall, on the wings of an - gels fly To man - sions in the sky: O come, come a - way!
