

LORD, I'M DEPENDING ON YOU.

Mrs. Thurman Byrd

Arr. by Col. R.H. Yarbrough

Mrs. Thurman Byrd

♩

1. When I shall stand at the Judge-ment of God, All of my deeds brought to view; I can-not stand there in judge-ment a-lone,
D.S. When the Arch-an-gel shall come in his power,

2. Of-ten my bur-dens are heav-y to bear, Seems that my friends are so few; Then I can go to my Sav-iour in prayer,
D.S. When the Arch-an-gel shall come in his power,

3. Oh, my dear friend won't you come to the cross? Just be-gin life all a-new; If you re-fuse him you're sure to be lost,
D.S. When the Arch-an-gel shall come in his power,

Fine

D.S.

Lord, I'm de-pend-ing on you. Lord, I'm de-pend-ing on You in that hour, Will I be one of the few?

Lord, I'm de-pend-ing on you. Lord, I'm de-pend-ing on You in that hour, Will I be one of the few?

Lord, I'm de-pend-ing on you. Lord, I'm de-pend-ing on You in that hour, Will I be one of the few?