

STAY, SINNER. L.M.

387

Rev. W. Kenney

W.J. Kirkpatrick

1. Stay, sin - ner stay; the night comes on, When slight - ed mer - cy is with -
 2. Stay, sin - ner stay; the Fa - ther's call Now bids you come for - sak - ing
 3. Stay, sin - ner stay; 'tis Je - sus pleads: For you He weeps, for you He

4. Stay, sin - ner, stay, the Spir - it cries, A - wake and from the dead a -
 5. Stay, sin - ner, stay; your life soon past, Will end in mourn - ing at the

6. Come, sin - ner, come; though guilt - y now, At Je - sus' feet sub - mis - sive
 7. Come, sin - ner, come; a home a - bove, Where all is light and joy and
 8. See, sin - ner, see, where loved ones stand, All saved in heav'n - a hap - py drawn; The Ho - ly Spir - it strives no more, And Je - sus gives His plead - ings o'er.

 all: Oh, come, and He - will bid you live; Oh, come, and free - ly He'll for - give.
 bleeds; Oh, let His love, your heart con - strain, Nor let Him weep and bleed in vain.

rise; A - rise and plead for mer - cy now, And at the cross re - pent - ing bow.
 last, And death's dark vale comes full in view, With none to guide you safe - ly through.

bow, And free - ly all shall be for - giv'n; Oh, come and taste the joys of heav'n.
 love, In - vites you now to haste a - way To realms of ev - er - last - ing day.
 band; Oh, come and join them on that shore, Where death and part - ing are no more.