

IMANDRA. 11s.

1. I dreamed I was out, to the east cast mine eye, The at - mos - phere calm and se - rene was the sky;
 2. A pil - lar of cloud in the east did ap - pear, A throne in the midst on which Je - sus sat fair,

3. The next I heard Je - sus say "Come you up here;" Then all the blest na - tions a - rose with - out fear,
 4. Then, in the sweet trans - port, my feet left the ground With - out an - y mo - tion of bod - y or sound;

So calm, still and aw - ful, tre - men - dous the sight; I thought the last judg - ment was dawn - ing to light.
 Who com - ing a - long the e - the - r'al bright plain And soar - ing a - loft till the midst He did gain.

And quit - ting the globe with great plea - sure did sing A song that was nev - er be - fore tuned to string.
 My joys were un - speak - a - bly full of de - light; So loud was the mu - sic it o'er - came me quite.
