1. God of e - ter - ni - ty, from Thee Did in - fant Time his be - ing draw;
2. Si - lent and slow they glide a - way; Stead - y and strong the cur - rent flows,
3. With it the thought - less sons of men Up - on the rap - id streams are borne

Mo - ments, and days, and months, and years, Re - volve by Thine un - var - ied law.
Lost in e - ter - ni - ty's wide sea — The bound - less gulf from whence it rose.
Swift on to their e - ter - nal home, Whence not one soul can e'er re - turn.
